

The National Crisis Continuum Conference

The National Crisis Continuum Conference

PHOENIX, AZ OCTOBER
14-17, 2024

The nation's premier conference for behavioral health crisis professionals, providers, stakeholders and advocates.

Letter from the Conference Hosts

Dear Sponsors,

On behalf of the Crisis Residential Association (CRA) and the International Council for Helplines (ICH), we would like to welcome you to CrisisCon24: The National Crisis Continuum Conference, taking place Monday October 14th to Thursday October 17th. This in-person conference begins with a welcome reception at 5:00 PM on Monday, October 14th, with sessions on October 15th and 16th from 8:30 AM—5:00 PM and on October 17th from 8:30 AM—12:00 PM. Please note that the timing of the agenda is subject to change.

The exhibit hall will be open from Tuesday, October 15th at 7:30 AM to Wednesday, October 16th at 5:00 PM.

We appreciate the continued support of our conference as the premier event for behavioral health crisis providers, payers, advocates, and administrators.

The following prospectus contains sponsorship information. It is our hope that you will consider this valuable opportunity to be a part of CrisisCon24.

Sincerely,

Heather Honaker
President,
Crisis Residential Association

Michael Reading
Board Chair,
International Council for Helplines

- Effective Clinical Interventions and Staffing Models
- Diversifying funding streams and referral sources
- Management and Crisis Competency Development
- Logistics and Best Practice Implementation
- Emergency Department and Community Collaboration

Attendee Profile

700+ attendees that represent the following service types:

- Crisis Call Centers & Suicide Prevention Hotlines
- Mobile Crisis Outreach Teams (MCOTs)
- Crisis Residential Programs
- Peer Respite
- Psychiatric Urgent Care Centers
- 23-hour Crisis Observation Units, EmPATH Units, and Psychiatric EDs

Conference Reach

The network of attending crisis professionals are committed to serving those in need of behavioral health crisis services in their community. This conference is designed to develop a nationwide voice for crisis services, deepen relationships, and provide a forum to learn about and discuss the issues most pressing in our field.

Social Media – The conference is actively promoted through social media before and throughout the event. Sites include Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and several Crisis listservs reaching thousands of people.

Email Marketing – the conference is heavily promoted among the suicide prevention, crisis services, and lived experience communities, reaching thousands of inboxes.

Shared Materials – Conference presentations and materials, including information on sponsors are shared with the entire crisis community following the conference.

Our Impact

Behavioral health crisis services play a unique role in the nation's healthcare system by providing timely and efficient support to individuals in need, avoiding the use of Emergency Departments, law enforcement & first responders, and jails and psychiatric hospitals whenever possible. Providing recovery services that are strengths-focused, client-centered and community-based, these services play a critical role in the crisis services continuum.

CrisisCon: The National Crisis Conference

A conference produced by partnership between the Crisis Residential Association and the International Council for Helplines.

About the Crisis Residential Association

The Crisis Residential Association (CRA) exists to support the operational and clinical functions of Crisis Residential programs and peer respites around the world. Rooted in the values of empathy, recovery, and continuous improvement, the association seeks to connect providers with the best ideas in behavioral health treatment to transform the way people receive mental health care.

About the International Council for Helplines

International Council for Helplines (ICH) is an international membership organization whose mission is to provide accreditation, leadership, support and networking opportunities to agencies and centers who offer helpline services to people in crisis via phone and online emotional support including chat and texting. We arrange training and consultation for the delivery of crisis services through the outlined best practices of accreditation. ICH strives to promote excellence in crisis services.
